BUILDING FUTURE LEADERS

The Sheep Producers Australia Leadersheep Network connects sheep producers and people working in the industry who share the goal of driving industry growth and success.

SPA is investing in the development of its current and future leaders, building the capability, capacity and confidence of the industry, through professional development and mentoring opportunities.

The Leadersheep Network will keep you informed about key industry issues, connect members across the industry and give you the opportunity to provide ideas and feedback.

The network offers another way to engage with Sheep Producers Australia to influence and shape the future of the sheep industry. It's your opportunity to contribute, by providing a collective voice to decision-makers.

POSITIONING THE AUSTRALIAN SHEEP INDUSTRY FOR AN EXCITING FUTURE

Sheep Producers Australia is focused on building industry leadership capability by up-skilling leaders throughout the supply chain.

This will ensure we attract, develop and retain people with the right leadership skills for the long-term viability of the Australian sheep industry.

The Leadersheep Network engages participants to:

- Develop forward thinking strategic leaders who can contribute to the industry and sheep production into the future.
- Ensure succession planning and strategic contributions on boards, committees and communities in the sheep industry.
- Develop industry participants' skills and experiences.

IT'S OUR INDUSTRY, OUR VOICE AND OUR FUTURE.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR GROWTH

Sign up to the Leadersheep Network to ensure you are up to date.

Sheep Producers Australia is committed to developing strong leadership, sound policy and strategic planning to drive the long-term success of the Australian sheep and lamb industry.

The opportunities for sheep producers and people working in the industry as part of the Leadersheep Network include:

TRAINING AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Sheep Producers Australia's flagship leadership development programs will enable participants to understand pathways into leadership roles within Sheep Producers Australia and the sheep industry.

BUILD YOUR SKILLS FROM WHEREVER YOU ARE

The Leadersheep Network features a range of online options to ensure that wherever you are based in Australia, you can continue to learn and develop your leadership skills. As the program expands, you will be able to evaluate your skills, identify areas for growth and discover new ways to develop your interests further. We are compiling the most interesting and useful topic requests to determine what to deliver next, so let us know what you're interested in!

NETWORK WITH LIKE-MINDED INDIVIDUALS

A key aim of the Leadersheep Network will enable participants to connect with each other. Sheep Producers Australia sponsors numerous industry events and hosts Leadersheep Forums to connect you with your peers, mentors and leaders. We'd love to see you there!

PROVIDE INPUT ON THE INDUSTRY'S BIG TICKET ISSUES AND OPPORTUNITIES

Sheep Producers Australia's core business is representing sheep producers and their interests at a national level. Have input on the big ticket issues through the Leadersheep Network to guide the industry's future.

OPPORTUNITY FOR MENTORING

Sheep Producers Australia will be developing a mentoring program to assist its future leaders with their leadership journey and transition into new positions. Stay tuned for more information!
